

The pyramids found in Giza are some of the best preserved ancient monuments in the world. Located on the banks of the River Nile, millions of tourists from all around the world flock to this wonder all year round.

In August 2019, the world-renowned rapper Stormzy visited the pyramids and was awestruck by what he saw. “I have seen pictures of the pyramids but nothing prepares you for seeing them in real life. I’ve got so much inspiration for my next album from my trip.”

However, not all visitors are as captivated by the site. One tourist (who chose to remain unnamed) stated, “The atmosphere is completely ruined by companies such as McDonalds opening stores within metres of the pyramids. You want to feel like you have been transported back in time, only to be interrupted by someone bellowing for a McFlurry! It completely ruined my experience!”

Can you identify the different types of nouns in these sentences?

As Kai stood on Brighton Pier, a flock of seagulls swooped down and stole his doughnut.

The superstar needed inspiration, so she jumped on a plane and went to Barbados.

Abigail’s nerves were almost unbearable as she stepped onto the stage.

The herd of antelope bolted in fear as soon as they saw the fierce lion.

Proper

Concrete

Collective

Abstract