

'Invite, Include,
Imagine, Inspire'

'Living life in all its fullness' John 10:10

RE Feedback

The pupils...

93% of children can talk about the Christian values of our school.

"I like it when we light a candle,
reflect and pray to God."

"One of my favourite lessons was when we had our RE art day and we created the Big Story of the Bible."

93% of children
enjoy their RE lessons.

"I like to learn new things about my religion (Christianity) but I also like to learn about other religions."

"It is really interesting when we watch videos. I also like to act out the stories of the bible because it gives me a better understanding."

"I enjoy learning about God and Jesus. I like it when my teacher reads the bible and we learn about all aspects of Christianity."

'Invite, Include, Imagine, Inspire'

'Living life in all its fullness' John 10:10

The parents...

"St Peter's is a special place where children are put first. The teachers and leadership team are supportive and want the best for every child."

100% of parents know what the school vision and values are and think they help to promote good behaviour and relationships.

100% of parents think the quality of RE at St Peter's is at least good.

"We chose St Peter's because we love the caring attitude of the staff at the school and the warm atmosphere they create for the children. My children are thriving and are well taught, with their strengths recognised and challenged further. The friendly school community and good relationships amongst the parents are another reason I love the school."

'St Peter's is inclusive of all religions. It provides an inclusive sense of global community and harmony.'

100% of parents would recommend St Peter's.

100% of parents say their child is happy and safe here.

"St Peter's instils core Christian beliefs but is also accepting of other religions and their practices."

'Invite, Include, Imagine, Inspire'

'Living life in all its fullness' John 10:10

The staff...

"RE lessons encourage a time for stillness, reflection and to ponder. It connects learning to the world around us and looks beyond the everyday for teaching opportunities, encouraging a sense of awe and wonder int eh every day."

100% of staff can explain their part in teaching and learning about God, Jesus and the Bible.

"I feel very well supported in RE at St Peter's."

100% of staff can explain our school vision and where it comes from.

100% of staff think the school promotes its Christian nature

100% of staff can talk about our Christian values.

"RE lessons encourage a time for stillness, reflection and to ponder. It connects learning to the world around us and looks beyond the everyday for teaching opportunities, encouraging a sense of awe and wonder int eh every day."