THINKING...

What is an array?

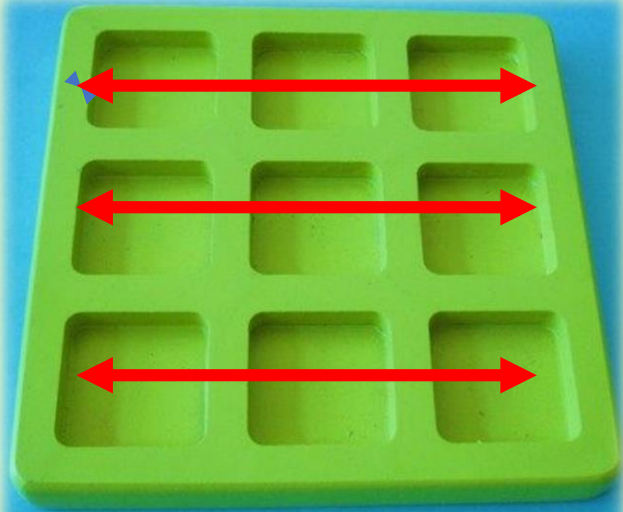

You would have seen arrays before.
Go on an array hunt. What can you find?

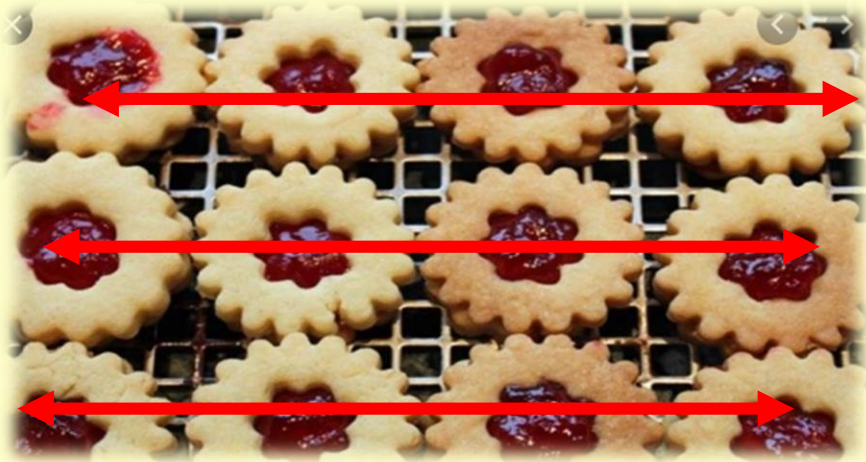

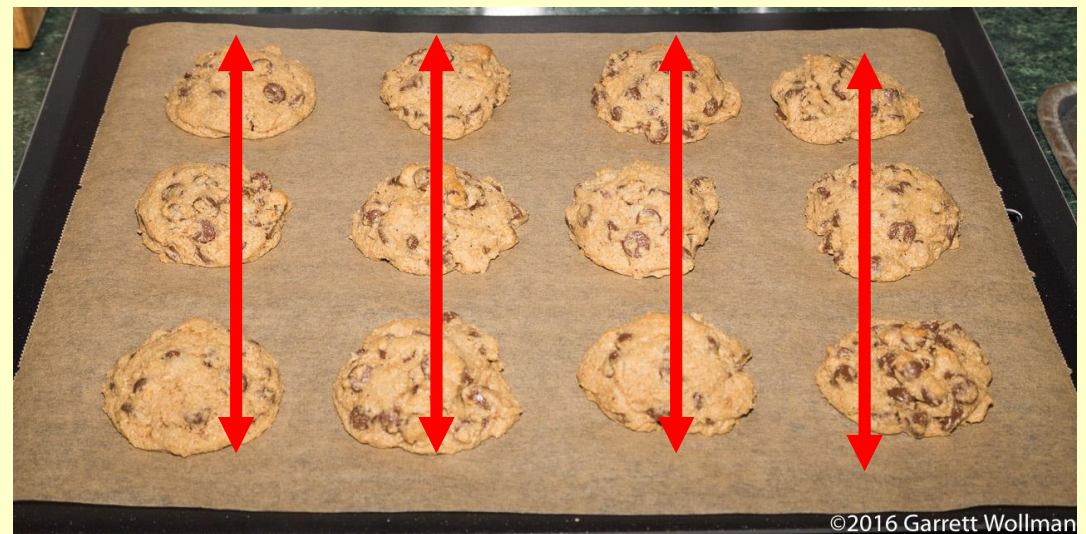

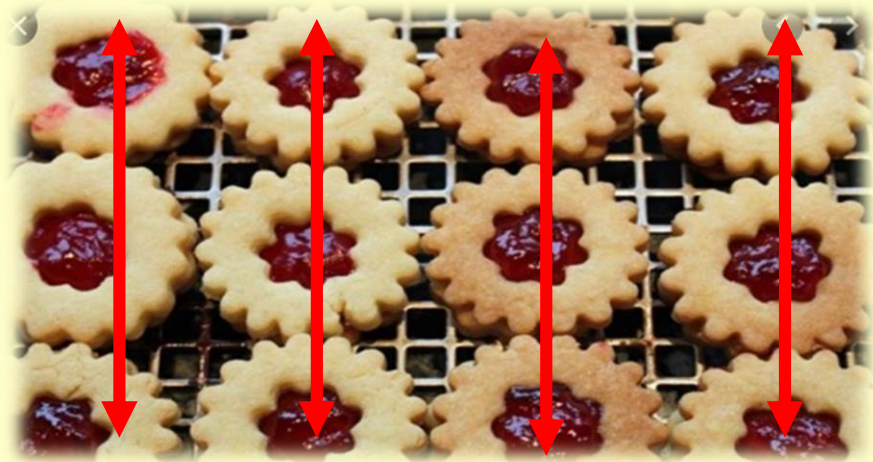

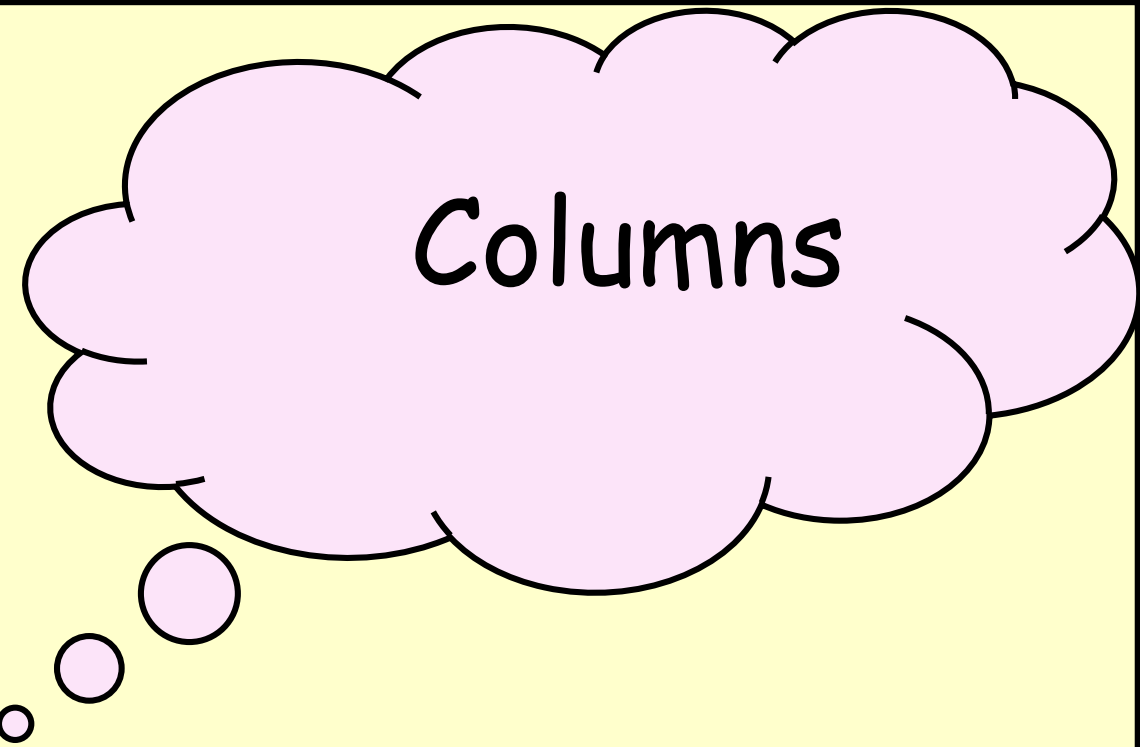

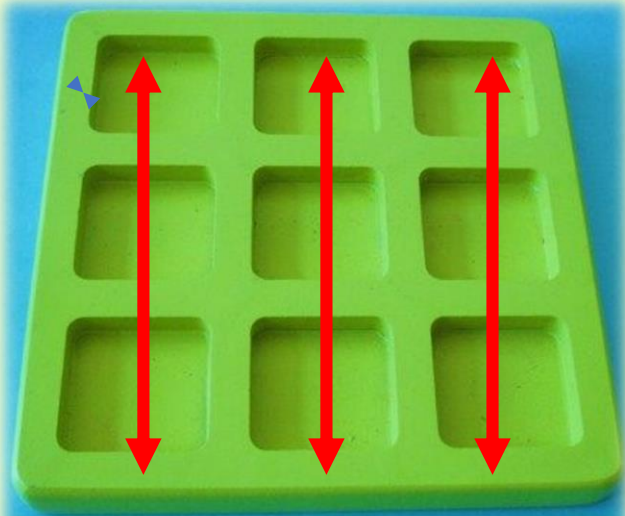

What do you see?
What do you notice?
Arrays have rows and columns.

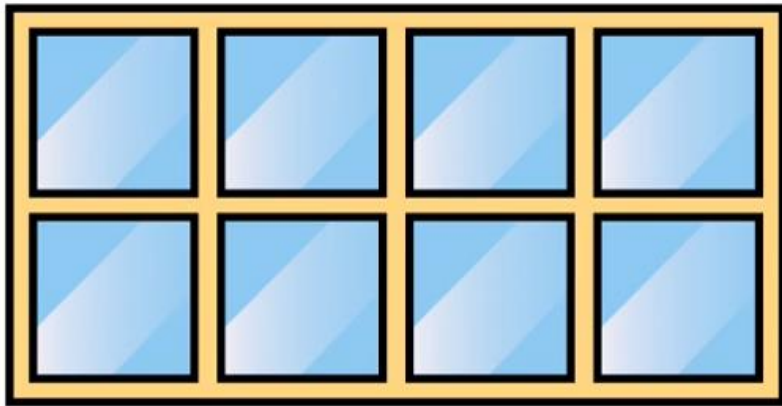

ROWS

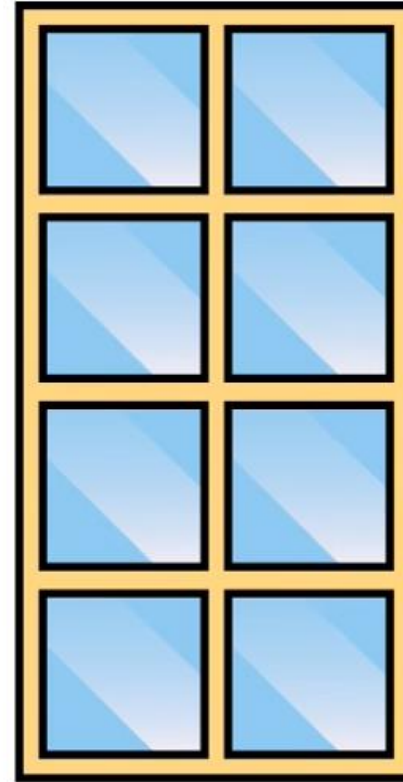

How many columns are in these arrays?

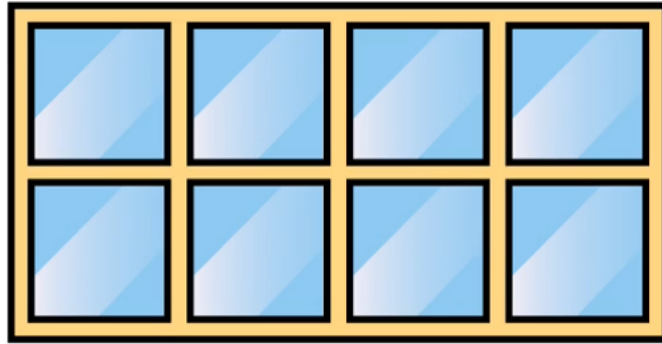

There are columns.

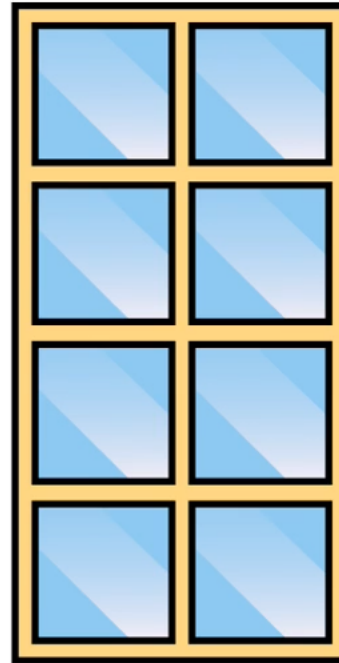

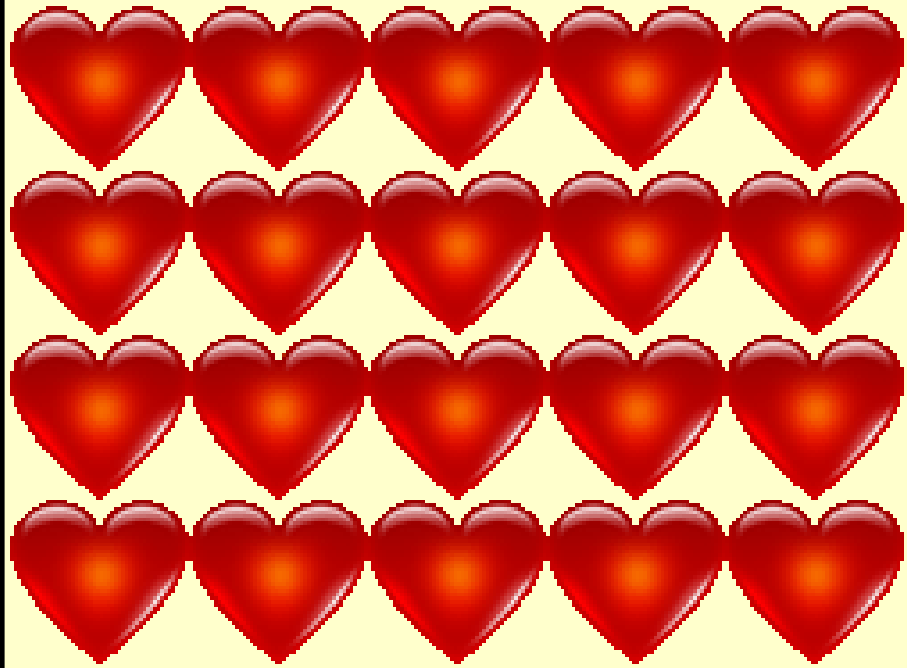

There are columns.

How many rows are in these arrays?

There are rows.

There are rows.

There love hearts in each row.

There are love hearts altogether

$$\square + \square + \square + \square = \square$$

There are rows.

There cakes in each row.

There are cakes altogether

$$\square + \square + \square + \square = \square$$

Great Work!

We are so proud of you
