Phoneme Detectives!

Read the passage and find all the ways to make....

the 'oa' sound

Flow the dog was almost home. He had snuck across the road to grab his bone. Flow had left it under the oak tree. When he was out, it started to snow so he had to rush back before his owners found out where he had been. Flow got home as his owners looked out the window. Oh no.. it's time for a bath with some soap.
