

Lost

Name: _____

Date: _____

I dragged my feet as I followed Mum into the store. 'Hold my hand' she warned as she checked her list and we grabbed a basket to hold our shopping.

We headed to the vegetable isle first where Mum selected a lettuce and some carrots.

Next we wandered to the fruit section and she chose some pears and some apples.

As she reached for an apple, one fell from the stack and went tumbling down onto the floor.

Letting go of Mum's hand, I bent down to get the bright red apple that had rolled under the table.

As I was about to stand, something shiny caught my eye. A $2 coin! Finally this shopping trip was looking up! I crawled further under the table to get it.

Standing back up I looked around, but Mum was no where in sight.

'Oh no!' I thought. 'Where is she?' I started to panic...
